Les bibliothèques Safari Online

The screenshot shows the Safari Books Online website. At the top, the logo "Safari Books Online" is displayed. Below it is a navigation bar with links: HOME, MY SAFARI, MY BOOKSHELF, MY ACCOUNT, TOOLS, and a login status "You Are Not Logged In • Login >".

On the left side, there is a search and navigation sidebar. It includes a search box with a "GO" button, a "Browse by Category" section with a "Category Shortcuts" dropdown, and a list of categories such as Applied Sciences, Artificial Intelligence, Business, Certification, Computer Science, Databases, Desktop Publishing, Desktop Applications, E-Business, E-Commerce, Enterprise Computing, Graphics, Human-Computer Interaction, Hardware, Internet/Online, IT Management, Markup Languages, Multimedia, Networking, Operating Systems, Programming, Security, and Software Engineering. A "View All Titles >" link is at the bottom of the list.

The main content area features a large banner with the text: "Safari Books Online is the e-reference library for programmers and IT professionals." Below this text is an image of a person at a computer with book covers for "UNIX IN A NUTSHELL", "JAVA IN A NUTSHELL", and "Learning Perl". A "FREE 14-DAY TRIAL" button is visible in the banner.

Below the banner are three columns of text:

- Search across the full text of thousands of the best technical books available today.
- Browse books by category to research any technical topic.
- Read books cover to cover online, or flip directly to the answer or code sample you need.
- Download whole chapters for printing and viewing offline.

At the bottom, there are three sections:

- New Books: Head First EJB™, Head First Design Patterns, Head First Java, 2nd Edition.
- Top Books: Web Design in a Nutshell, 3rd Edition, Mind Performance Hacks, JavaScript: The Definitive Guide.
- Safari Labs: Check out Safari's latest enhancements and help shape Safari's future, New Graphically Rich Books.

On the right side, there is a "Welcome to Safari" section with a login form (User Name, Password, Remember Password checkbox, On Login, Go To... dropdown, LOGIN button), links for "Forgot Password", "Secure Sign In", and "Subscribe Now!". Below this is a "Free 14-Day Trial" section with a registration form and a "Corporate Licenses" section with a registration form. At the bottom right is an "RSS" section with an "RSS" button and a "Publishers on Safari" section listing publishers: O'Reilly, Addison Wesley, Sams, Prentice Hall, Que, Cisco Press, Microsoft Press, Peachpit Press, New Riders Publishing, Alpha Books, and Course Technology.

Comparaison Safari / Google

Exemple : Ruby

Safari Books Online donnera des résultats ciblés dans le domaine “technique”.

Google donnera des résultats dans divers domaines (pierre précieuse, langage de programmation, clips musicaux...).

The screenshot shows the Safari Books Online search results for 'Ruby'. The interface includes a left sidebar with a category tree under 'Programming (200)', listing sub-categories like Java, JavaScript, Internet/Online, and Operating Systems. The main content area displays five search results, each with a book cover, author information, and a 'More Results From This Book' link. The results include 'Ruby Cookbook', 'Learning Ruby', 'Ruby by Example', and 'Ruby Pocket Reference'. A snippet of code is visible in the second result, showing a Ruby function definition.

The screenshot shows the Google search results for 'ruby'. The search bar at the top contains the word 'ruby' and a search button. Below the search bar, there are navigation tabs for 'Web', 'Books', 'Video', 'Blogs', 'Code', 'Groups', and 'Images'. The main content area displays several search results, including 'Ruby Programming Language' (a dynamic, interpreted, open source programming language), 'Ruby (programming language) - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia', and 'Kaiser Chiefs - Ruby' (a music video). Each result includes a brief description and a link to the source.

Les résultats apparaissent surlignés

The screenshot shows the Safari Books Online search interface. On the left, there is a search sidebar with a search box containing 'ajax javascript' and a 'GO' button. Below the search box are sections for 'Results by Category' and 'Browse by Category'. The main content area is titled 'Search Results' and shows 'Found 225 section(s) in 21 book(s) matching your search for " ajax javascript"'. There are options to 'Define Sort Criteria' and 'Results By Text Relevancy'. A 'Results By Content Type' box shows: Books: 21, Articles: 175, Safari Guides: 13. Below this is a table of results with columns for Title, Chapter/Section Title, Publisher, Pub. Date, Slots, and Bookshelf. The first five results are listed, each with a book cover icon and a snippet of text where the search terms are highlighted in yellow.

Recherche d'un code de programmation

<!DOCTYPE html PUBLIC "-//W3C//DTD XHTML 1.0 Strict//EN"
"http://www.w3.org/TR/2000/REC-xhtml1-20000126/DTD/xhtml1-strict.dtd" >
