

BRILL

Founded in 1683, Brill is a scholarly publisher with offices in Leiden (The Netherlands) and Boston (U.S.A.). Brill has been listed at the Amsterdam Stock Exchange since 1997. Brill publications also include the imprints Martinus Nijhoff Publishers, VSP, Hoteli and Global Oriental. Brill's publications focus on the Humanities and Social Sciences, International Law and selected areas in the Sciences.

In addition to its journals and books publishing programmes, Brill also offers reference works and primary source materials.

Journals

From 2012 Brill will publish 175 journals – including 16 e-only titles and 3 full open access titles. Many of Brill's journals are indexed by major abstracting & indexing services, such as Web of Science and Scopus. All back volumes have been (or will be) digitized and are included in the Brill Journal Archives Online.

Books

Brill publishes over 500 books per year in both print and electronic format. Brill offers the electronic version on its own platform booksandjournals.brillonline.com (October 2011). Each title is part of one E-Book Collection. The E-Book collections are sold by copyright year.

Reference works

Brill publishes various reference works in print and online – including prestigious publications such as the Encyclopedia of Islam, Brill's New Pauly and The Hague Academy Collected Courses.

Primary Source Materials

Primary sources usually refer to original material, which scholars study and interpret as a basis for their own academic works. Brill's Primary Source Collections include scanned printed or handwritten texts, e.g. pre-modern archival documents, Oriental manuscripts, but also printed art sales catalogues and contemporary human rights reports.
